

Mr Ngozi Odiaka

Mr Ngozi Odiaka earned his LLB and LLM degrees from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria and was admitted to the Bar in 2008. He spent some time in legal practice before he joined the College of Law at Afe-Babalola University, Ado-Ekiti, Nigeria as a lecturer in 2011. Afe-Babalola University is a private university established in 2009, which makes Mr Odiaka one of its pioneer academics.

Mr Odiaka teaches Law of Contract, Conflict of Laws, Family Law, and Law of Evidence. He also teaches on the combined social justice programme of the Colleges of Law and Social and Management Sciences at the same university. He has published in the area of Commercial Law and Public International Law and also pursues research interests in disability rights.

The topic of his research while on the Fellowship is:

A Comparative Analysis of the Intersection between Corporate Governance and Corporate Social Responsibility in Multi-generational Family Businesses in Africa.
